LAST OF THE YEAR.

Holiday Happenings To Close
The Year and Century.

More Weddings, and Numerous Fights Frolics and Fires.

A double wedding took place at Noah's Spring, Tenn., Bennetts-town furnishing the quartet. The contracting parties were Mr. Charles Roberts and Miss Nannie Bryant, and Mr. Joseph Bryant, Jr., and Miss Stegall. The first named bride is a daughter of Mr. Joseph Bryant, Sr., as is also the second mentioned groom. The four young people, accompanied by several friends, drove to Noah's Spring, just across the Tennessee line, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. E. King, of Lafayette, pastor of the Methodist church at the latter place.

TWO IN JAIL.

And Warrant Out For a Third Party.

Mack Cash and Lollie Farrell were arrested in Earlington Saturday, charged with damaging the property of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Empire. The men were brought here and lodged in jail Saturday evening by special Deputy Greer. A warrant is out for another party, charging a similar offense, but has not yet been served. The trial of the two men under arrest will be held before Judge Cansler one day this week.

FRIDAY NIGHT FIRE.

Destroys a Stable on South Main Street.

Fire Friday night destroyed the stables of Mr. L. H. McKee, on South Main street. Some young men returning from a reception discovered the fire and turned in the alarm and at once broke open the doors and rescued four horses in the stables before anyone else arrived on the scene. The stable of Mr. W. S. Davison, across the narrow alley, also caught, but was saved in a damaged condition. It is thought to have been the work of incendiaries. Mr. Davison's small loss was insured. Mr. McKee had no insurance and his loss will be about $150. The fire company did prompt and effective work.

WENT OVER ABUTMENT.

Horse's Neck Broken and Vehicle Wrecked.

Ben Sanders, col., while returning home from this city last Wednesday, met with a bad accident at Hargis' bridge. Sanders was drinking, and instead of driving across the bridge the horse was driven over the abutment of the structure and animal and vehicle landed in the river, a distance of about twenty-five feet below. The horse's neck was broken and the buggy was wrecked. Sanders was thrown from the vehicle and pretty badly hurt, though not seriously injured.

DEATH OF MRS. HAEGERTY.

Former Citizen of This City Passed Away Saturday.

The wife of Mr. Thomas Haegerty, formerly of this city, died at her home in Knoxville, Tenn., Saturday. She had only been ill a few weeks and death was due to appendicitis. Mrs. Haegerty was formerly Miss McGinnis, a sister of Mr. Charles McGinnis of this city and was married here about two years ago. The remains will arrive in this city at 7:40 this morning and the interment will take place in Hopewell.

GANG DIVIDES.

Nought is a Nought, Figure is a Figure.

All For The White Man And Nothing For The Negro.

Acting upon the assumption that Christian county is reliably Republican this year, the Republicans are just now engaged in a veritable scramble for county nominations. The county committee has been called to meet next Saturday to fix upon a time and method of settling the aspirations of some thirty odd candidates for the several county offices. The committee consists of 3 members from each of the 28 precincts and 11 from the county at large, making 99 members. Judge A. H. Anderson is Chairman and Mr. C. A. Brasher Secretary of the committee, which is about equally divided between the representatives of the 3600 colored Republicans and the 900 white ones. It is proposed to hold a primary election about Feb. 20 and this action will probably be taken with the approval of nearly all of the aspirants.

It is already evident to the outside observer that the "court house gang," as it is generally called, will see that the principal members of the "gang" are well taken care of. A slate will be fixed up and the "rank and file" will be allowed to vote for the state. In some cases the gang candidates are practically without opposition, but others are in all sorts of trouble up to their necks and in one or two instances they are fighting among themselves. As far as obtainable at this writing, the candidates are as follows:

County Judge—Polk Cansler, W. T. Fowler and possibly John Feland, though Feland has been offered the nomination for state Senator if he will keep out of this race.

County Clerk—Jno. P. Prowse and C. R. Clark, with great pressure being brought to keep the latter out of the contest.

County Attorney—Otho Anderson and Lawrence Yonts.

Sheriff—H. H. Golay, W. T. Williamson, Lem Davis, Jno. B. Everett, W. R. Long, Geo. B. Croft, Mc J. Davis and Thos. H. Major.

Assessor—R. A. Cook, S. E. Everett and W. H. Ryan.

School Superintendent—Miss Katie McDaniel, L. W. Guthrie and F. H. Renshaw.

Jailer—Joe F. Turner, J. J. Allen and John Boyd.

Representative—Jas. F. Rogers.

Senator—Probably John Feland.

Coroner—Jas. L. Allensworth, col.

In this equitable distribution of salaries the 900 white Republicans are allowed ten offices with salaries aggregating about $16,000 a year while the 3600 colored voters are conceded one laborious office paying $6 per corpse, provided one is found. By close application to business this office can be made to pay about $100 a year, from which it will be seen that the white Republicans have done worse than 16 to 1 and have adopted a ratio of 16,000 to 100.

There are already murmurings of dissatisfaction and an ominous indifference among the colored brethren, who claim to have votes enough to beat the Democrats 300 without the aid of a single white Republican and that the white Republicans who have appropriated the office in advance are not even numerous enough in the county to hold the balance of power.

They seem to forget there was a mild riot of revolt four years ago among the negroes by which the 189 majority of 1380 was cut down to less than 380, although everything in sight was counted, including one precinct in which no official ballots were used. Exclusive of this precinct in which no election was held according to law, some of the gang were trimmed down to less than 200 votes. This year the majority is— and there are reports that a full ticket may be put out by the negroes, and that a wholesale revolt is liable to be recorded against gang rule. Should the race take this kind of a turn, it is believed that the Democrats would nominate no ticket, but keep hands off and let dog eat dog.

HARNESS ASSIGNS.

Drug Failure at The Close of Holiday Week.

Mr. A. P. Harness, the Main street druggist, made an assignment Saturday for the benefit of his creditors, naming his brother, Mr. Chas E. Harness, of Corydon, as assignee. The assets consist of a stock of drugs and other goods contained in the store at 113 South Main street.

Mr. Harness came to this city from Henderson four or five years ago and has made many friends, who hope to see him able to resume business in the near future.

WANTS $25,000.

Brakeman Was Killed Near Nortonsville Two Months Ago.

About two months ago W. M. Lockett, an L. & N. brakeman, fell from the top of the caboose of his train near Nortonville and was killed. The administrator of Lockett has brought suit at Henderson against the company for $22,000 damages.

MORRIS SURRENDERS.

Taken Into Custody by Clarksville
Officer—Behind Bars.

Robert Morris, who shot and killed Marion Henderson near Bluff Springs Christmas eve, was taken into custody in Clarksville Saturday by officer Dyer of that place. Morris was locked up and the authorities here notified. Saturday evening Deputy Sheriff, C. J. Barnes went over to Clarksville and returned with the prisoner Sunday morning. He was placed in jail. Morris refuses to talk about the case. No date has yet been fixed for a preliminary hearing and the case may go over until the grand jury meets.

Morris, the next day after the killing, left his home on foot and went in the direction of Tennessee.

It was learned by Sheriff Barnes that he spent a night at Elmo, enroute to Clarksville, and the Chief of Police of Clarksville was notified to keep a look-out for him. When Morris met officer Dyer he at once surrendered and agreed to return to Kentucky without a requisition. Morris has relatives living in Clarksville.
